About CEW

CEW's 825 members hold leading roles in Australia's largest private and public organisations. They oversee more than 1.3 million employees and $749 billion in revenue. Member's organisations have a combined market capitalisation greater than $1.144 trillion and contribute in excess of $249 billion to Australia's GDP.

Since 1985, CEW has influenced and engaged all levels of Australian business and government to achieve gender balance. Through advocacy, research, targeted programs and scholarships, CEW helps to remove the barriers to women's progression and ensure equal opportunity for prosperity. CEW's members work actively to realise our vision of a community where women and men have equal economic and social choices and responsibilities. For more information, visit cew.org.au.

About CEW Supporters Sponsorship

When you commit to women in leadership, you begin a journey to better financial performance and improved company culture. You become a leader and an advocate for gender equity. How we empower women in leadership

As a CEW Supporter, you help fuel CEW's work including programs supporting the next generation of women leaders. CEW's powerful research into gender equity drives real change in policy and practice.

Scholarships

The CEW Scholarship Program offers senior executive women the unique opportunity to attend leadership courses at top business schools around the world. They are invited to apply for courses that suit their needs and aspirations; and that are offered by any higher education school, at any time of the year, anywhere in the world.

CEW Leaders Program

For over 15 years, the CEW Leaders Program has brought together eminent CEW members, executives and participants from Australia's leading organisations and sectors for seven days of workshops, discussions and presentations. The program provides emerging women leaders with the skills and confidence they need to progress to the most senior levels of leadership.

CEW Connect

An exclusive community for CEW Scholars and CEW Leaders Program graduates, CEW Connect enables alumni to network and build relationships with each other and some of Australia's most senior women leaders (CEW members) through live events and an engaged online community.

Research

With the help of our partners, CEW's research uncovers the facts and cuts through the myths surrounding women in leadership with hard data. From research on gender in the workforce to the CEW Senior Executive Census; we advocate, encourage examination, and recommend actions that lead to gender balance in leadership.

The CEW Annual Dinner

An important fundraising and networking event, the CEW's Annual Dinner is one of the most prestigious nights in Australia's corporate calendar. Attended by CEW Members, Sponsors, CEO's and management teams, the event raises funds to support CEW's initiatives including our Scholarships program.
