Women Leaders Enabling Women Leaders in a new reality

The world has changed and to lead in a post pandemic world demands different skills and styles of leadership. Authentic leaders who lead with compassion and empathy, those that embrace ambiguity and those that seize every opportunity without reservation will be the next generation of executives. Our aim is to provide a leadership development experience that enables women to become those leaders and be ready to step forward with confidence.

CEW's Leaders Program is a bespoke development program encouraging women leaders to truly be themselves. It is designed and facilitated by CEW Members who share their wisdom and lifelong experiences. It is independent, intimate, challenging, collegiate and reflective in nature. Learning happens through continuous dialogue and experimentation with new competencies.

If you are looking to accelerate the development of women in your organisation, create a truly diverse and inclusive working environment or looking to simply invest in your own leadership development, this program is the right choice.

CEW Leaders Program

Our alumni tell us that the interaction and dialogue between participants, facilitators and presenters is key to this unique experience.

Working in Buddy Groups, exploring personal insights and making space for reflection are all crucial elements. This relationship-based approach is delivered in three face-to-face blocks, scheduled six to eight weeks apart in Sydney, Melbourne, Brisbane, Perth and Canberra. This format also allows time for personal and collective reflection to sharpen their focus on action and commitment.

Participants will:

Amplify

their strengths and recognise the power of complementary strengths in others

Develop

new competencies and celebrate their own unique style of leadership

Empower

themselves to lead effectively with influence and confidence

Activate

their own leadership development journey

Act

with self-awareness and commit to their own development

Build

strong relationships with activated peer networks

We continually challenge ourselves to refresh the content every year with diverse speakers and new elements that reflect the needs of changing environments in corporate, public service, academic or not for profit organisations.

Our participants' feedback is consistently high in terms of their confidence and the benefit they and their organisations gained from the experience. In 2021 over 50 organisations supported their women leaders by enrolling them in the Program.

said their organisations benefited from their participation in the Program of participants increased their industry networking and relationship-building skills

CEW Leadership Compass

Underpinning the Program is CEW's Leadership Compass, a learning framework of 12 competencies that, in combination, are critical for developing each participant's unique and distinct style of leadership. This is supported by a strengths based diagnostic and a personal audit designed to identify areas for personal and professional development. Participants are led through each one to explore where their strengths lie and identify how to amplify them and recognise their leadership potential. Participants develop a new narrative on their own value proposition and take ownership of their career journey.

Why choose CEW?

Now in its 17th year and with over 2000 alumni, the CEW Leaders Program is anchored in CEW's mission:

'Women Leaders Enabling Women Leaders'

Since 1985, CEW has influenced and engaged with all levels of Australian business and government, advocating for change in key areas to realise our vision of a society where women and men have equal economic and social choice and responsibilities.

CEW's 800+ members are extraordinary women leaders with a driving sense of purpose for sustained change. They hold leading roles in Australia's largest private and public organisations, overseeing more than 1.3 million employees and $749 billion in revenue. Access to these women leaders provides unprecedented opportunities to engage with and learn directly from Australia's exceptional women leaders.

On graduation, participants join the CEW Connect community of women leaders across Australia and South-East Asia, receiving ongoing professional development and connection opportunities while 'paying it forward' as the next generation of women leaders.
